

COUNTY FRUIT GROWERS GOING TO STATE MEET

Plans for attendance at the annual summer meeting of the State Horticultural Association were discussed Thursday evening at a meeting of the Fruit Growers Association of Adams County held in the Biglerville Community Center.

The state sessions will be held July 28 at Treedale Farms at Mars, Pa., and July 29 at Hillcrest Farms, Chester, W. Va. George Schriver, Bendersville, chairman of the committee on arrangements for attendance by the local fruit growers, outlined the activities for the two days and asked those who may wish to travel by bus to the two-day event to contact him as soon as possible, in order that arrangements can be completed. About a dozen growers said they expect to attend Thursday's session.

At Treedale farms the program will include inspection of 525 acres of orchards including spray demonstration blocks, inspection of a 90,000-bushel cold storage plant, demonstration of power pruners, mowing with various types of tractors, a culti-cutter demonstration, tree row cultivation, power digging of tree holes, and a spraying demonstration.

Hear Fruit Specialist

At Hillcrest farms, the group will tour of the 600-acre orchard, mostly Rome Beauty, Delicious and Golden Delicious. The group will also inspect the farm shop there, the water system, which Schriver said "could supply a small town" and the famed Hillcrest strain of Hereford cattle.

The amount of materials recommended in the spray schedule are proving "just on the border line this year," State College specialists told the group. "With the weather we have been having any slight slip up has caused trouble in the orchards," (Continued on Page 3)

Sheriff Dorsey Schultz is expected to return Sunday from Fort Worth, Tex., with Geoffrey B. Arthur, Hanover, wanted in Adams County on a warrant charging him with burglarizing the Strasbaugh Restaurant in McSherrystown two years ago.

With Sheriff Schultz was Detective Edward Pinkerton Jr. of York County, who went to Dallas to bring back George Bull, York, wanted for thefts in York County. Both men were arrested in Texas.

Arthur, authorities said, was implicated with two other York County men, one of them a juvenile, in several burglaries in Hanover and McSherrystown. Arthur was indicted, but the indictment was nolle prossed when one of the others retracted a statement implicating him. He was re-indicted about two months ago, authorities said.

College Graduate Wounded In Korea

A War Department telegram announcing that Lt. William R. Richardson III was wounded in Korea has been confirmed in a letter from the 22-year-old officer to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Richardson Jr., of 56 N. 17th St., Harrisburg.

Lt. Richardson, who was attached to the 2nd Batt., 223rd Infantry Regiment, 40th Division, said in his letter that he was checking front-line positions of his platoon when he and a sergeant were struck by shrapnel June 1.

He said he was removed to an evacuation hospital with wounds of the back, shoulder and hand but was uncertain whether he would be hospitalized in Japan before returning to duty.

A grandson of the late Col. Richardson, who served for many years as quartermaster for the 28th Division, Lt. Richardson won a commission in the Army when he graduated with honors in military science from Gettysburg College June 15, 1952. He is a member of the ATO Fraternity. He had been in Korea since early spring.

An Eagle Scout, he served as assistant scoutmaster of Troop 5 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Harrisburg.

More Than 1,800 Anti-Commies Escape From Five Prisoner Of War Camps, Hospital In Korea

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
SEOUL (AP)—New and bloody mass breaks from Allied stockades today swelled to nearly 26,000 the legion of anti-Communist war prisoners liberated in South Korea's bold defiance of the U. N. Command.

More than 1,800 bolted from five prison camps and a hospital last night and early today on the heels of those ordered released Wednesday by President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of Korea.

U. N. Command headquarters in Tokyo placed at 25,952 the total Koreans escaping in the past two days, and 9,398 those anti-Red Koreans remaining in custody. The figures differed somewhat with those released by the U. N. prisoner of war command, which said its totals were "rough."

Those making the break early today included 494 who battled U. S. Marines at Ascom City camp, near Seoul's big port of Incheon on the west coast. The U. N. Command said the leathernecks had replaced ROK guards at the camp before the South Koreans had opportunity "for collusion."

Whether the mass releases and breaks for freedom would wreck the two year-old armistice negotiations—now in their 11th hour—remained to be seen.

Collusion Duplied

In Moscow, the Soviet press carried the story under the heading "provocatory actions of the Syngman Rhee clique." The reports published there implied collusion between some American authorities and the South Koreans.

Additionally, Russian newspapers published U. S. Secretary of State Dulles' comment that Rhee violated "the authority of the United Nations Command," and Prime Minister Churchill's statement deploring the prisoners' release.

Besides the mass break early Friday at Ascom City, hundreds of prisoners bolted at U. N. Camp 4 at Yongchon, in South-Central Korea; Camp No. 5 at Sang-Mudai and Pusan and a handful at Taegu.

13 Prisoners Killed

At Ascom City, 13 prisoners were killed by gunfire and 17 were trampled to death as 494 other POWs clawed through a barbed wire fence to freedom. Ten more POWs died later of injuries to boost the death toll to 40.

A Marine spokesman said the gunfire came from a rice paddy outside the prison compound, evidently from Koreans aiding the break. Two Marines were wounded.

Here And There News Collected At Random

FBI undercover agent Matt Cvetic plays two games in one as he "enjoys" canasta in an airplane trip with big time Commie official Laura Black in "Cardgame in the Clouds," Sunday's fantastic episode of "I Was a Communist for the FBI" at 7 p.m. over station WGFT. It suddenly hits Matt that the Commies are playing with him just the way Laura now tries to inveigle him into picking up the deck and stay with the game until she can run out.

He figures "they" are keeping him on missions . . . at arm's length from important knowledge, only so the FBI won't take him off his undercover assignment even to appear at the Red trials. He stooges for Laura who is delivering to "Mr. Penrose" at New York's Park-Lowell Hotel a briefcase she obtained from her lover at the Washington, D. C. airport. En route the pair stop at Mr. Arbogast's "agency" where Matt's gun is taken from him, returned after a bit when the two set out on a bus trip. The briefcase is stolen on the bus. Laura leaves, too.

Matt goes to his hotel and . . . tune in Sunday night and hear the thrilling climax.

Motorists using the Pennsylvania Turnpike pay from two to three cents more for gasoline than those traveling on parallel highways or nearby roads, a Sun Oil Company marketing executive has declared. He declared a survey showed that gasoline prices posted at service stations on roads approaching the Turnpike at various locations were consistently below those on the Turnpike. These prices averaged from two to three cents a gallon less, he said.

An 83-year-old Waynesboro resident died Thursday morning nine hours after she fell down a flight of stairs at her home.

Mrs. Mary E. (Strausbaugh) Saylor, widow of Sheridan M. Saylor, succumbed at 7:10 a.m. at the home of her son, Harvey J. Saylor, Westminster, with whom she had made her home since January following the serious illness of her husband, who died April 25.

Will Determine Cause

Coroner S. D. Shull is expected to determine the exact cause of Mrs. Saylor's death. She complained Wednesday of not feeling well and started upstairs to her room at 8 p.m. As she reached the head of the stairs, members of the family said, she either made a misstep, or stumbled, and fell down the flight of stairs.

Condition Changes

She was knocked unconscious by the fall but regained consciousness and rested fairly well until 2 a.m. when her condition changed, the family said.

Mrs. Saylor was born in Adams County, daughter of John and Marie (Bishop) Strausbaugh and had resided in Waynesboro for the last 54 years, going there from Adams County.

She was a member of the Waynesboro Church of the Brethren and the Philathea Bible Class of the Sunday School.

Globemasters Are Grounded

TOKYO (AP)—All giant C-124 Globemasters flying the airlift between Japan and Korea were grounded today pending an investigation of history's greatest air disaster which killed 129 American servicemen yesterday.

Air Force crews still worked at the grisly task of identifying the bodies of 122 American and Army Engineers and seven plane crewmen who perished in the crash of a Globemaster near here yesterday. There were no survivors.

Most of the victims were headed back to battle stations in Korea after brief rest leaves. Names of the dead were withheld. As a result, news agencies swamped with calls from frantic relatives of men who had written home that they were headed for home in Japan. But no names were released.

Presumably none of the victims were men whose leaves had been cut short because of the emergency created by South Korea's release of thousands of anti-Communist prisoners in Korea.

The Globemaster crashed about three minutes after taking off in murky weather from Tachikawa Air Base, 25 miles west of Tokyo. Air Force investigators were flying to Japan from the U. S. to try to discover the cause.

ANNUAL SERVICE AT HUNTINGTON MEETING SUNDAY

The 162-year-old stone Huntington Meeting House, early place of worship for Quakers in Adams County, will be the scene Sunday afternoon of the annual service held there once each year "by appointment."

J. Barnard Walton, Philadelphia, field secretary for the Friends General Conference, will be the speaker at the services to be held at 2:30 p.m. (DST).

Persons who attend the meeting will use benches believed to be those installed originally when the place of worship was erected in 1791. Meetings of Quakers in the area date back to 1745 but regular meetings at Huntington ended in 1885.

Annual meetings at a stated date were continued until 1916 but since that time a meeting has been held once a year "by appointment." The old meeting house is now under the care of the trustees of the Menallen Meeting House at Flora Dale.

In the old cemetery beside the Huntington Meeting House, graves date back to the late 18th century and include Revolutionary War Veterans.

Ingenuous Boys Buy, Read, Sell Comics At Reduced Price

Want to buy any comic books at half price? Used ones, that is, but in good condition.

Two future business men are turning pleasure into profit by selling their comic books after they have read them, instead of piling them up at home or throwing them away.

Michael Sundermeyer, 12, and his brother, Niels, 15, sons of Dr. and Mrs. William K. Sundermeyer, 239 W. Lincoln Ave., started the business last year, in the vicinity of their home. Now they have moved to a more central location — Lincoln Square.

Michael and his assistant, Gordon Richardson, 11, son of Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. Richardson Jr., 45 E. Lincoln Ave. set up for business with a card table, two chairs and a supply of comic books, in the northwest segment of the square.

Buy More Books

"Niels wouldn't come with us," Michael said. "He's bashful."

What do they do with the receipts? "We save the money," Michael, the spokesman said. "Then we buy something we want or need, or maybe some more comic books. Last year we took in $2. This year we took in 25 cents the first day (Wednesday). Today we've only taken in ten cents."

Congressman Explains Vote

Congressman S. Walter Stauffer sees eye-to-eye with President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the latter's efforts to balance the federal budget by reductions all along the line and then reduce taxes across the board, he informed The Gettysburg Times.

It is this outlook that has caused the Nineteenth District Republican congressman to vote against continuance of public housing, slum clearance and urban redevelopment in spite of the fact that he headed York's Housing Authority for three years.

And it is this outlook that caused him to vote for a six-month extension of the excess profits tax on corporations, although as a business man, the congressman finds that levy an "ugly" one.

Congressman Stauffer is giving this explanation to correspondents who have questioned the reasons for his recent positions, he revealed.

In one letter he told a correspondent, "If we are to balance the federal budget and stabilize the American dollar, it is necessary to curtail government expenses, and all federal aid programs must share in this reduction, however worthy they might be."

APPREHEND TWO GIRLS

State police on Thursday apprehended two girls, aged 16 and 17, who had run away from their homes in Stewartstown and were en route to Fairfield, according to the borough police sheet. The mother of one of the girls, a Mrs. Har, reported first to borough police on arriving here to secure the girls, and was directed to the state police barracks.

Pickett White House

In front of the White House, there was a swelling demonstration by partisans of the Rosenbergs.

A corporal guard of pickets which kept vigil through the night had swelled by mid-morning to 140. Police assigned 27 patrolmen to keep the curious moving and to prevent any violence.

The pickets were themselves picketed by a lone woman in white who bore a sign which said: "Send the spies to the chair. Give them the hot seat."

She told a reporter she is Mrs. Peggy Lee, of Columbia, S. C.

The pickets walked slowly and silently, most of them carrying coats and jackets as the day warmed up.

For the most part they marched silently.

At New York's Sing Sing prison, the husband and wife team of condemned spies was permitted a visit.

They chatted through a wire screen in the death house.

Wedding Anniversary

The couple spent yesterday, their 14th wedding anniversary, in Sing Sing's death house, not knowing whether they would die in the electric chair before midnight as spies who conspired to slip atomic secrets to Russia.

They mustered a quiet "Thanks" when officially notified the Supreme Court had recessed at 5:29 p.m. (EST) until 11 a.m. (EST) today without reaching a decision on their fate.

WASHINGTON (AP)—By a 6 to 3 vote, the Supreme Court struck down today the legal barrier thrown up by Justice William O. Douglas against the execution of atomic spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

The decision could be the climactic one for the husband and wife who have waited in New York's Sing Sing Prison for two years while their fate was a battle issue in the courts of the U. S. and public opinion the world over.

RHEE SAYS HE ASKED IKE FOR BETTER TRUCE PLAN FOR KOREA

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee disclosed today he asked President Eisenhower two days ago to seek some other remedy to the Korean War instead of an armistice that would leave this battered peninsula divided.

Rhee's letter to the U. S. chief executive appeared to be a complete rejection of Eisenhower's pledge of June 6 to give South Korea economic aid and to work for a mutual security pact if Rhee would accept an armistice near completion at Panmunjom.

The letter was written on the eve of Rhee's order freeing thousands of anti-Communist war prisoners. It said:

"Means 'Death Warrant'—When such offers come as a price for our acceptance of the armistice as we know it, they cannot but have little inducement, because, as I have said before, to accept such an armistice is to accept a death warrant.

"As a matter of fact, a mutual defense pact is what we have constantly sought, and we are behind it heart and soul, but if it is tied up with the armistice, its efficacy would be diminished almost to a vanishing point."

Rhee did not say specifically he would not eventually accept Eisenhower's offer, but the whole tone of the letter cried out against any armistice at this time.

"Joining Hands With Enemy—The United Nations is now putting pressure on us in cooperating with it (an armistice); and is joining hands, it seems, with the enemy in this matter of armistice terms," Rhee said.

Rhee added little remained except the signing of a truce by U. N. and Communist leaders.

Yet, he said, "at this very moment, the Communist forces are launching a large scale offensive."

Says U. N. Backed Down—He said the Red drive on the East Central Front the past few days should be a warning of what to expect after an armistice.

He accused the U. S. and the U. N. of backing down on early war objectives of "a united, independent and democratic Korea and the punishment of the aggressors."

He said "the counsels of appeasers" have turned America to open confession of weakness. . . that it had never been intended to unify Korea by war."

SAYS KOREA IS HARDEST HIT

GROVE CITY, Pa. (AP)—A veteran Far East missionary told the Pennsylvania Synod of the Presbyterian Church that Korea has been destroyed more than any other country in any other war in history.

Dr. John C. Smith, associate general secretary of the Foreign Missions Board of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., said last night that the 230 churches in Korea before the war, 30 have been demolished and 35 are no longer usable.

The Korean people face a tremendous reconstruction job, Dr. Smith said in a talk before 800 delegates to the synod's 72nd annual meeting, and added the Presbyterian Church's greatest challenge is to give relief without impoverishing them spiritually. He explained that the missionary traditionally seeks to help people by showing them how to help themselves.

Delegates named the Rev. G. Mason Cochran of Oil City chairman of the Christian Education Committee and chose A. Leslie Mould of Erie, former moderator, to serve on the Board of Trustees and the Committee on Pensions.

COURT DENIES NFL REQUEST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Football League's request for a stay of the federal government's anti-trust suit against the NFL's television and radio broadcasting policies has been turned down.

Federal Judge Alan K. Grim said yesterday that he wanted a decision in the case before the 1953 season gets underway.

The league had sought an indefinite delay in filing final briefs, arguing that cases before the U. S. Supreme Court involving the reserve clause in baseball will have an important bearing on the NFL's case.

League counsel contended that the high tribunal's decision in the baseball case will determine whether baseball is in interstate commerce, and therefore resolve an issue in the football litigation. They requested that the briefs await the high court's ruling.

Lutheran Board Affirms Its Faith In Christian Colleges

In light of the current discussions and investigations of colleges, universities and teachers, the Board of Education of the United Lutheran Church in America unanimously passed the following resolution at its meeting in Washington. This Board has advisory supervision of 14 colleges and ten theological seminaries in the United States and Canada, including Gettysburg College and Seminary.

Rev. Dr. Gould Wickey, executive secretary of the Board, is a graduate of Gettysburg College and Seminary.

"The Board of Education of the United Lutheran Church in America earnestly affirms its faith in the Christian revelation and the deep implications of that truth for higher education. It believes that the clear and forthright teaching of the Word of God with its Christian view of man is the most constructive and effective power to strengthen the foundations of society which are being threatened by an insidious communism, materialism and secularism.

"The Christian colleges and universities render unique service to culture. They demand that every academic discipline and every life work be evaluated in light of the Divine Word.

"The Board regrets that present hysteria in some circles which hampers the academic pursuit of truth in a zeal to safeguard democcracy. Christian educators must be alert to subversive elements which would destroy the Christian way of life and jeopardize genuine scholarship. They must not be intimidated in their search for and presentation of truth.

"We believe that the Christian colleges offer a most vital and intelligent witness to the true meaning of education. The Christian colleges are the sure defense of that which is preeminently worthwhile in life."

Each camper must present her parent's signed permission slip and also her swimming permission card on Monday. The Scouts are requested to dress in suitable camping attire, take swimming outfits and their lunch each day.

Cooks-outs will be planned by the individual troops and some of the troops will camp out over night. Various arts and crafts, folk dancing, First Aid and other activities will be taught. The Intermediate and Senior Scouts will be given a choice to work for a badge in basketry or a rambler's badge. The members of Troop No. 28 will receive their second class pins.

William Wilt will be the camp director, assisted by Mrs. Carroll E. Arter as Adams County camp coordinator. Mrs. Monroe G. Morelock will serve as camp nurse. Miss Nancy Renner will be the Red Cross swimming instructor. In addition to the above named, the camping staff will include Mrs. John E. Stambaugh, Mrs. George W. Strevig, Mrs. Ralph Wantz, Mrs. Earl Stites, Mrs. John C. Forry, Mrs. Charles E. Rabenstein, Mrs. Paul Luckenbaugh, Mrs. Paul Morehead, Miss Diane Stambaugh and Miss Delores Harbaugh.

COUNTY FRUIT

Dr. R. S. Kirby, extension pathologist, told the growers.

Captain (406) has shown the best results against scab in the test plots of the Arendtsville fruit laboratories and in the orchards, Kirby and Dr. Fred Lewis said. As a result they replaced ferbam with captan in the suggested schedule, giving the 406 the "number one spot" in the recommendation.

Scab Is Critical
Kirby said the scab situation remains critical. "If the weather continues cool and wet we may have to call for an extra spray. If we get weather in the 80s and 90s scab will slow down. But we haven't been getting that, instead we've been getting cool, wet weather. And thus we see something that we have not seen for a long, long time, scab increasing through the first, second and third cover sprays."

J. O. Pepper, State College Extension specialist, reported coding moth larvae still entering apples and "more plentiful than last year. Second generation red-banded leaf rollers are present in some orchards." Pepper said conditions have been "favorable for all the enemies of the trees while they have been unfavorable toward the grower trying to get in a complete spray schedule."

For the fourth cover spray in apples, scheduled to go on now, about 10 or 12 days after the third cover application, the specialists recommended as a dilute spray, per 100 gallons of spray, two pounds of 50 per cent wettable powder DDT, one pint of TDE (Rothane) 25 per cent emulsion and 1 1/2 pounds of Captan (406). The amounts should be tripled for concentrate sprays.

Peaches Need Cover
The third cover spray should be applied immediately on peaches to prevent blackened peaches at harvest time, the specialists reported. European fruit lecanium scales are hatched. Except for orchards having blossom blight, brown rot is under control. Scab continues as a threat.

The spray to be used on peaches includes, per 100 gallons of spray: one pound of 15 per cent wettable powder Parathion and six pounds of a dry wettable sulphur. For concentrate sprays the amounts should be tripled. In those orchards where there is no European fruit lecanium scale the Parathion can be omitted from the spray, using only the fungicide. The sulphur should be a 90 per cent sulphur with an average particle size of not more than five to seven microns.

Locusts On The Wane
Kirby, warning the growers that "leaf spot can bite," told the group they must maintain protection through the harvest period on sour cherries. The pre-harvest spray should go on seven days before the harvest and the next spray should be applied "not more than two weeks later." The danger, Kirby said, lies in the possibility of defoliation caused by the leaf spot.

which weakens the trees and "leaves them wide open to winter kill."

Dean Asquith and Kirby reported TEPP as giving good results against the 17-year locusts, which, they said, are beginning wane in this section. They held that a check of rumors disclosed few persons made ill while applying the TEPP "and then only through carelessness." They added that the amount of damage caused by TEPP "is very slight in comparison to the amount of good we got from the sprays."

Army worms may cause damage in the county, Pepper reported. He urged farmers cutting hay or barley fields adjoining corn fields, to watch carefully for migration of the worms from the hay or barley to the corn. If there are evidences of such a migration, the farmers were urged to take steps at once to save the corn.

President Nelson Weber presided at the meeting with 52 present. Rev. A. W. Geigley spoke of three bills backed by the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth. A number of growers signed a petition asking the Legislature to consider the bills, on adoption, child care and establishment of boards of child welfare.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ABIDE YOUR TIME
All my life I have wondered why so many people are in a hurry.
You can't save time. Time keeps going on, in the same manner today or this minute as ever. We,
as individuals, should be the ones
to save ourselves.

I often turn to a little book that is full of wise sayings. It is by Gracian, the Spanish philosopher, and was first published in 1625.
Here is one sentence: "The best remedy for disturbances is to let them run their course, for so they quiet down."

The wise physician frequently gives no remedies at all. He just gets his patient quiet and in a hopeful mood. I have watched nurses in a hospital take the hand of their patient and this has seemed far more potent than the giving of a pill, about which that patient knows nothing. But that patient does know what the press of a hand means. It gives immediate calm.

Careful preparation is essential for anything that is worth while.
Time thus spent is never be-grudged, especially in later life when the fruits of one's preparation begin to bear in an abundant. We never lose by patiently abiding our time. Readiness is triumph!

The reading of biographies is not only interesting but very instructive. There are told the stories of those who took their time to prepare for bigger things ahead.
The mere abiding of one's time is in itself preparation, for it means ripeness, maturity, and fullness of experience.

Nothing of permanence is ever done in a hurry. The speculator, as well as the investor, buys in poor times and sells in good times.
Such people abide their time, and don't worry about the delay in becoming affluent.

There is a world of value, as well as philosophy, in that small word — wait! Plan. Think things over. It's the matured judgment of the lawyer for which clients pay most. Abide your time and face each new day with a confident heart.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Tension"

LOST RIDGE IS RECAPTURED BY
SOUTH KOREANS

By WILLIAM G. BARNARD
SEOUL (AP)—South Korean troops, fighting viciously, lost and then won back two frontline positions on the East-Central Front Thursday.
Four hundred Chinese pushed the ROKs off steep, high Mt. Ridge, near Christmas Hill, at 6 a. m.,
but the ROKs banged back and retook the height about noon. It has been the scene of bloody fighting the past few days.

Another 400 Chinese battled hand to hand with South Korean troops at a frontline position south of Finger Ridge in midmorning, finally spilling the ROKs back. A few hours later the South Korean troops won back the position in more close-range battling.

In the air, U. S. Sabre pilots destroyed four MIGs and damaged four others in jet battles that ranged down to tree-top height along the Yalu River in far Northwest Korea.

120 Chinese Killed
Meanwhile, an Eighth Army officer said latest figures showed 120 Chinese killed and 480 wounded early Tuesday in two unsuccessful 2,000-man attacks at Outpost Harry on the Central Front.

Allied casualties were comparatively very low, he said.

Greek troops threw back a sharp strike at Outpost Harry Thursday.
The Red jab at Outpost Harry on the Central Front ended a short-lived lull across the 155-mile battle-front—a lull which appeared timed to agreement at Panmunjom on a battlefront demarcation line.

The stubborn Greek defenders threw back 3,000 Chinese and North Korean Reds in an hours-long, hand-to-hand battle on Outpost Harry.

WANTS U. N. TO PAY WAR COSTS
IN INDOCHINA

PARIS (AP)—Asking the National Assembly to confirm him as the head of France's 19th postwar government, Andre Matre has proposed that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization put up the billion and a half dollars France now is spending annually to fight Communist-led rebels in Indochina.

If NATO wouldn't shoulder the load, Matre told the Assembly,
"exceptional measures" would have to be taken to keep up the seven-year-old fight in the jungles and rice fields.

The candidate for the premiership, who held the job for 35 days in 1948, was not specific about what these measures might be, but indicated France could find the money for Indochina only by reductions in what she is spending on European rearmament.

If NATO would take over the financial burden in Indochina, Matre said, France then would share in the costs proportionally with the other members of the Atlantic Alliance, as she now does in supporting European rearmament.

Matre, a leader of the Radical Socialists, was the third prospect to go before the Assembly in an effort to end France's current cabinet crisis, now in its 29th day—a postwar record.

Fate Of Korean Armistice May Be Determined In Few Hours At Meeting Tonight In Panmunjom

By GEORGE A. MCARTHUR MUNSAN (AP)—The fate of the Korean armistice may be determined within a few hours when Allied and Red negotiators meet in full-dress session at Panmunjom.

The next move apparently is up to the Reds—but they gave no hint when they asked for a meeting at 11 a.m. Saturday (9 p.m. Friday, EST).

The negotiators might approve final truce details—Or the Reds may protest President Syngman Rhee's defiant release of about 26-000 anti-Red Korean prisoners.

Ready For Signing
The armistice draft appears ready for signature as soon as Chinese, English and Korean translations are approved.

Observers predicted Rhee's arbitrary action probably would not block signing of the truce, but they feared trouble later when the Allies must account for and hand over Red prisoners.

And there is the possibility Rhee could expand this first open revolt against the U. N., upsetting the whole agreement.

Try To Re-capture
The UNC has assured the Reds
it is taking "every step" to recapture the escaped prisoners, but it has found only a handful. The task appeared almost hopeless as the prisoners hid in homes with the blessing of the South Korean government.

As the critical full-dress session approached, there were these other developments:

1. The Reds called off Friday's meeting of interpreters believed working on the armistice draft at Panmunjom.

Building Work Stops
2. The official Red Peiping radio accused Rhee of releasing the prisoners in order to impress them into the South Korean army and added the "Americans deliberately connived" by taking no measures to prevent the breakouts. It also said the sincerity of the U. S.
is "indeed put to an acid test."

3. Communist army engineers abruptly stopped construction of a building at Panmunjom which some observers thought might be used for the truce signing ceremony. There was no explanation.

4. Allied troops continued preparations for prisoner exchange and top Allied officers who will serve on a joint Red-Allied military commission after the armistice arrived in Munsan.

Egyptian Dynasty
Ends In Republic

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Egypt's military rulers proclaimed their nation a republic last night, ending the 148-year-old dynasty of former King Farouk and his forebears and installing Premier-Maj.
Gen. Mohammed Naguib as the country's first president.

At the same time the Army Revolutionary Council, which dethroned Farouk last July and has been the power behind Naguib ever since, announced three of its members were taking over key Cabinet posts.

Chief of these was Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, Naguib's closest aide and acting Army chief, who became vice-premier and interior minister.

LITTLE LEAGUE BOOSTER TAGS TO GO ON SALE

Mothers of the Little League Baseball players in Littlestown and the players themselves will be selling Booster Day tags in Littlestown Saturday in preparation for the observance of next Tuesday as Little League Booster Day.

Proceeds from the sale of the tags will go toward the continuance of Little League Baseball in Littlestown.

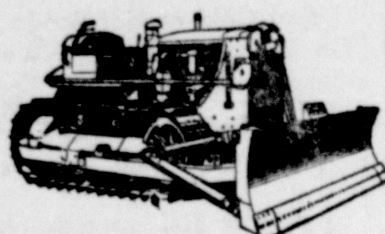

No price has been placed on the tags but any sum the purchaser wishes to donate will entitle him to wear one of the tags which will continue on sale through next Tuesday.

This is the second year for Little League Baseball in Littlestown. A four-team league was organized last year with 60 boys participating. This year there are approximately 80 boys in the Little League program. Besides developing future ball players, it is also teaching the youngsters good sportsmanship, team play and discipline, which is the keynote of the Little League, League officers said.

Plan Two-Night Games

In order that more people may see the Little Leaguers play, officials have arranged two twilight-night doubleheaders to be played at Memorial Field. The first of these is Tuesday night, June 23, and the other will be played Thursday evening, July 16. The first game will start at 6:30 p.m. and will match the Lions and the Cardinals. The second contest will get underway at 8 p.m. and will have the Giants playing the Vets under the lights.

Little League rules provide that games be only six innings instead of nine and must be finished by 9:30 p.m. This will enable parents to attend games along with their smaller children.

As with the Booster Tags, there is no admission charge to see these games. Any contribution a person wishes to make will entitle him to both the Booster Tag and the admission to the games. Letters were sent last week to the various service and civic organizations in town inviting them to attend these games as a group and to encourage their membership to support the Little League Program by securing and wearing a Little League Booster Tag. Several of the organizations in town are planning to attend these games in a group.

The refreshment stand will be open for the convenience of those who like hot dogs, peanuts and soda pop with their baseball. In the event of rain or inclement weather, the games will be played Wednesday evening, June 24.

SEN. M'CARTHY KNEW HE WAS MARKED BY REDS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today he has known "for some time" that Communists have him marked for assassination, and a colleague said other senators' names may be on the same list.

McCarthy's Senate investigations subcommittee dramatically brought the story to light at a hearing yesterday. Joseph D. Mazzei, describing himself as a former FBI counter-spy, swore he heard a Pittsburgh Communist brag last December that the Communist party had assigned him to kill McCarthy "when the time comes." He named the man as Lou Bortz.

tee called Bortz as a witness. He refused to say whether Mazzei's testimony was true, pleading that the answer might tend to incriminate him.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), presiding at the subcommittee's inquiry, said the group has more evidence about the alleged assassination plot than it revealed in the hearing.

The subcommittee announced it plans to call more witnesses in the case next week, and said one of them would be Steve Nelson, former Communist party official in Western Pennsylvania. Nelson was convicted last year of violating Pennsylvania sedition laws. He was sentenced to 10 to 20 years in prison, but is currently free on bond pending outcome of an appeal. Nelson and four others are now on trial on a federal indictment alleging a conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the government.

President Auriol Studies Rejections

PARIS (AP)—President Vincent Auriol studied National Assembly voting on rejected candidates for the Premiership today in hopes of picking a man who can get even a precarious majority in Parliament. The latest hopeful—Radical Socialist Andre Marie—lost out early this morning.

As the nation's political crisis continued into its 30th day, a French postwar record, it appeared the President might turn to the independents among the Assembly's ranks. There was no immediate indication, however, when Auriol might name his new prospect.

THE PRACTICE OF CHRISTIAN LIBERTY

Galatians 5:13-18; 22-6:5

Memory Verse: You were called to freedom, brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another. Galatians 5:13

Last week we discussed the basis of Christian liberty. We concluded that we obtained true liberty by faith in God through Christ; and a desire to know the will of God for us and obey it. Today we are concerned with the right use of that liberty. We get valuable guide posts in Paul's letter to the Galatians — especially in the latter part of that epistle. Much of theology is found here, but practical Christian living is stressed in the writer's best style and diction.

Paul warns us that liberty is not given that one may do as he pleases. That is, according to the promptings of the flesh, but in accordance with the love we are to bear toward one another. He quotes from the Mosaic law: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." He declares the whole law is fulfilled by the true observance of this one commandment. He here implies that one cannot love others without having in his heart a warm and abiding love for God Who Himself is the fountain of all affection.

The love Paul speaks of works in two directions. First its course is inward and is a purifying force. Its spiritual fruits are set forth in a list of virtues which, if attained, will adorn and enrich any life. They are: "Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, temperance, gentleness, self-control." To possess these in one's life is truly a high aspiration. Even Paul declared he had not "attained" but was striving earnestly towards the mark. It is fortunate that we have the inspiration of One Who has attained and given us a picture of what pure holiness can be. Though tried and tested by temptations that assailed Him, His was the perfect human life. He was tempted as we are and yet was free of all transgression. Any Christian life that aims toward the perfection that is in Christ must yield to much pruning. It is as with the vine which bears its best fruit when not allowed to grow wild. No one can always do as he pleases according to the flesh; he must be guided and controlled by the Spirit. Then he is in the way of a liberty, God-directed and fruitful.

The exercise of our true liberty is in our relations to our fellow-men. The Grace of God by which we again freedom of soul is given that we may serve.

"The whole law" as Paul puts it is "to love your neighbor as yourself." Here we have a wide area in which to operate. It fires the imagination when we think of what kind of a world we might have instead of what we do have; if Paul's list of "the fruits of the Spirit" were applied to all our relations near at home or in distant lands. Common kindness would beautify our homes and communities. Patience and selflessness would lead us toward better relations between nations. Faithfulness would hold governments true to treaties agreed upon. In the wide field of industry there is room to exercise the God-granted liberties of action. Once we recognize that our duty under God is to serve we shall have a better world. Then the freedoms we now enjoy will be increased, and our hatreds and strifes will diminish.

"Where cross the crowded ways of life,
Where sound the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of Man."

ATTENDS SYNOD

Wilbur A. Bankert, Maple Ave., is attending the meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio, from June 17 to 24, as lay delegate from the Mercesburg Synod.

FIREMEN TO PARADE

The Alpha Fire Company truck will leave for the parade in Irish-town on Saturday at 5:30 p.m., from the engine house. Members planning to go with the truck should be at the engine house.

I'LL ASK FATHER

When Jimmy has a question, his first thought is, "I'll go ask Father." And Father has an answer, or if he hasn't he'll try to find it for Jimmy.

Father can't be there always to answer Jimmy's questions. But there is a Father who never goes away, who never dies—your Father, our Father in Heaven.

The boy or girl who learns to seek answers to his problems by reading the Bible and by asking his Father's will through prayer, will never be at a loss for guidance as long as he lives.

If you want your children to find this unfailing guide to a satisfying life, take them to Church and Church school. It can be your most precious gift to them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
